KISSM Music Makers Faculty

Term: July 6th - 24th 2026

Number of contracts available: Dependant on registration numbers

About the Kamloops Interior Summer School of Music:

The Kamloops Music Collective (KMC) stands at the forefront of youth music education in Kamloops and the surrounding areas, renowned for crafting and delivering transformative programs that empower young musicians to excel. Through our work, we ensure that every aspiring musician has the opportunity to learn, play, and perform under the mentorship of professional music educators, regardless of their financial circumstances.

Since 1978, the Kamloops Interior Summer School of Music (KISSM) has been a cornerstone of artistic inspiration, igniting a lifelong passion for music and the arts in countless young individuals. Every July, our three-week immersive program gathers emerging musicians to explore and deepen their craft, guided by esteemed music educators, industry professionals, and enthusiastic university students who share a profound love for music.

With over 50 dynamic classes, enriching activities, and vibrant performance opportunities, KISSM offers a comprehensive and engaging experience that spans a wide array of musical genres. From classical to contemporary, there is truly something for everyone at this beloved summer camp, which has become a cherished tradition in our community.

We are now inviting passionate and innovative music educators to join us in shaping the next generation of musicians. Successful applicants will play a pivotal role in delivering impactful programming for students.

About This Role:

The Music Makers Faculty for the Kamloops Interior Summer School of Music (KISSM) will be responsible for caring for children who have finished Kindergarten to Grade 3 at the time of the program. Reporting to the Music Director and working closely with KISSM Faculty, the Music Makers Faculty will support various programs and activities for our young musicians. The primary responsibility will be ensuring that the needs of our youngest participants are met, fostering a safe and supportive environment throughout their camp experience.

Nature of work

The Music Makers Faculty Member will lead children in activities designed to stimulate and develop their intellectual, physical, and emotional growth, while ensuring their safety and well-being throughout the camp day.

Pay: Compensation will be based on experience and responsibilities, ranging from $900 to $1,100 per week.

Requirements

The successful candidate must:

- Be able to work effectively both independently and as part of a team.

- Have experience working with children in Kindergarten through Grade 3.

- Demonstrate strong classroom management skills.

- Have excellent time management abilities.

- Be adaptable and quick-thinking in a dynamic environment.

- A background in music or music education is considered an asset.
